

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED

MRS. CHARLES M. DUNTON.

CHARLES M. DUNTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Dunton, whose marriage was celebrated on Wednesday last in Popponess Baptist Church, Mrs. Dunton was before her marriage Miss Marylene Hughson Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Vaughn, of Belmont. Mr. and Mrs. Dunton will make their future home in Onley, Va., where the groom is in business.

SOCIETY

WITH the Easter season begins the vogue for house parties in country homes that will, a little later, be occupied by their owners for the late spring and summer months.

The number of Richmond people who are looking forward to returning to the country in May and early June grows increasingly larger each year.

Mrs. Sue Williams Buck and Miss Ella Buck are at Rose Hill now, where they are entertaining a party of Richmond friends who left Friday to spend Easter there, including Miss Caroline Gordon, Reynolds, Miss Huxley, William Trigg, Addison Reynolds, Gordon and Hiram Smith. At another Albee house party Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss is hostess at the Hotchkiss country place near the University, Miss Bernard Cocke, Miss Mildred Boyd, Mrs. Henry Hotchkiss, Miss Eloise Waldrop and Miss Virginia Gordon, of Norfolk, and Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Sr., being members of this pleasant group.

Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Leigh, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson are in the number of those who have country places in Orange county. Colonel Cameron's place, Cameron Lodge, and Mr. Atkinson's home, Rocklands, are near Gordonsville. Mr. and Mrs. Leigh are not far from Somerset, and at Rapidan are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nalle, who are in Richmond for the greater part of each winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Scott have been enlarging and beautifying their handsome place, Royal Orchard, near Afton, Va. The Cobham and Keswick neighborhoods in Albemarle have a number of beautiful country homes. Mr. and Mrs. Decatur Axtell and George Cole Scott have cottages at Hot Springs, where it is said that President and Mrs. Taft will go with their family to enjoy a part of the summer.

Colonel W. H. Palmer's home, Mountain View, near Blacksburg, Va., is said to be one of the most delightful of country places.

In the environs of Richmond, Major and Mrs. James H. Dooley's home, Maymont, at River View; Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Willis's and Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Patterson's homes, on Westhampton Road; the Crenshaw's, on Hermitage Road, and a delightful community there, otherwise made up of the Strudwicks, the Melons, the B. B. Munfords and the John Skelton Williamses, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Parrish's place, Minnecorya; William Habington's bungalow on the Westhampton Road, the Forbes summer home near Bon Air, and the Jeffers home, Meadow Brook, at Drewry's Bluff, always centres of charming life and hospitality, are especially desirable in summer.

So are the James River country homes, several of which are owned by Richmond people.

John P. Branch annually occupies his cottage at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, where a circle of habitués go to enjoy life in this most historic and famous of Southern mountain resorts. Not a few Richmond people have cottages at Virginia Beach, where Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christian and Miss Lucy Christian dispensed much delightful hospitality last summer.

In the vicinity of Lewisburg, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier are already keeping open house.

The Stevens home, "Virginia Manor," in Rockbridge county, presided over by Miss Helen Stevens, is a centre of bright young life throughout the year, and especially so at the Washington and Lee and Military Institute finals, when Miss Stevens always gathers a group of young Richmond girls around her. The younger Stevens boys are cadets at the institute, and the girls are specially pleasant opportunities for them. Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Conquest and family will spend the summer on Hermitage Road. Indeed, after Easter comes and goes the question of summer holidays is one of paramount importance and general discussion.

Easter Weddings.

On Tuesday, April 13, in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Dabney Jefferson Carr, 514 North Harrison Street, the marriage of Miss Anna Deane Carr and Howard Gilman Davids, Sixth Infantry, United States Army, will be quietly celebrated at 5 P. M. in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Miss Carr's wedding is to be even quieter than was originally expected, no cards having been issued for the ceremony.

Bishop Gravatt, of West Virginia, a cousin of the bride, will officiate. Misses Grace Douglas Anderson and Lisa Deane Anderson, of Alexandria, will be maids of honor, and Messrs. Allen and Kirk McCurdy, of Philadelphia, will attend the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baird, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Louis Slesman Scott, of Broad Run, Va., are here for the wedding.

The bride and groom will leave for a trip North, and will go on West to Montana, where Lieutenant Davids is stationed at Fort Harrison.

Brooks-Traut.

To-morrow, Easter Monday, at 7 P. M., a pretty wedding will be celebrated in Leigh Street Baptist Church, when Miss Florence Adele Traut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Traut, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Louis Slesman Scott, of Broad Run, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, will be married. Rev. W. S. Dorset will perform the ceremony.

Messrs. R. A. Cooke, R. E. Yates, Charles Fair Brooks and Dr. J. G. Traut will act as ushers, and W. M. Parrish, Jr., will be best man.

Miss Nanette Ligon Martin, as maid of honor, will attend the bride, who will enter with her father and be given away by him.

She will wear an old rose tailored suit and carry bride roses. The maid of honor will be gowned in white mes-saline, and her flowers will be La France roses.

Returning from a Northern wedding tour, which will include Washington, Baltimore and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will be at home to their friends at 2213 Park Avenue after April 18.

Weddings on Wednesday.

One of the most interesting weddings which will be celebrated on Wednesday, April 14, is that of Miss Elizabeth Bryan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Corbin Braston Bryan, of Petersburg, to
